

RUSSIAN FORCES

JOINT SERVICE REGULATION

GENERAL

Please note, that the following rules and guidelines are mandatory for every soldier currently employed with the Russian Forces. Disregarding any of the following rules can result in a disciplinary measure or in a dismissal from the forces. Bear in mind, that these regulations may change from time to time so please try to keep updated as good as possible. If you have questions or improvement proposals please contact your Colonel.

GENERAL MANNER

- 1) Orders or instructions issued by a supervisor have to be carried out and respected at all times. Discussions about orders are only to be held after a mission is fully completed and therefor must never take place within an ongoing mission.
- 2) Soldiers must be recognized as such by civilians, thus wearing one of the provided uniforms from the RF-Shop in the Vybor HQ is mandatory. The soldier is allowed to wear anything else (vests, helmets, backpacks...) at his own leisure.
- 3) The cohesion of the forces is essential to fulfill the duties assigned by the Russian Government. Therefore, every supervisor is obliged to ensure said cohesion.
- 4) Soldiers can use every vehicle of their choosing.

SURVIVOR AREAS

- 1) Within the so called survivor areas, the Russian Forces are obliged to enforce the law of the Republic of Chernarus.
- 2) The use of lethal force within a survivor area is considered to be the last resort. Lethal force must only be taken into consideration, when a civilian poses a threat to the life of the soldier or his comrades.
- 3) If the circumstances require a lockdown of the survivor area an officer (Lieutenant or higher) can order said lockdown. In an ongoing lockdown, civilians are not allowed to enter or leave the survivor area. Soldiers are allowed to use every means they have to ensure that (barricades, traffic stops, lethal force...). Lethal force must not be used on peaceful civilians. The lockdown needs to be lifted as soon as the circumstances, that posed the initial threat, have dissolved.

RANKS

Private

Corporal

Sergeant

Lieutenant

Captain

Major

Colonel

Supervisors

These ranks' orders have to be carried out and respected at all times.

Each rank is connected to a certain responsibility

Brig. General

General

Generals

These ranks are reserved for server staff members only.

Usually, they will not interfere with the everyday business unless they see fit.

Commands issued by these ranks have to be carried out and respected at all times.

A supervisor is allowed to waive a lower-ranked soldier's command at his own discretion (attention: an e.g. Lieutenant cannot waive another Lieutenant's command). This should only happen to ensure a mission's success or to restore order.

LOOTING

Every now and then, the soldiers might have the need to explore the region to ensure their demands for any materials or equipment. Therefore, soldiers are allowed to loot the region at their own discretion.

When leaving the survivor area, soldiers may try to enforce the law of the Region of Chernarus but it is not recommended to do so for obvious reasons.

The soldiers' main aim is to restore the order in the whole region, hence it is not allowed for them to shoot civilians on sight. Using lethal force on civilians is only allowed when civilians disobey the soldiers' orders or pose a threat to the life of a soldier or other civilian.

TEAMSPEAK

- 1) When playing, all soldiers have to be logged in to the respective channels of our Teamspeak 3 Server.
- 2) Do not interrupt others – especially not supervisors. Try to be as respectful as possible.
- 3) When in an ongoing mission, try to stay as calm as possible.
